

GNANAJYOTI COMMUNITY COLLEGE

HIGHLIGHTS OF ACTIVITIES – AUGUST 2017

SELF-AWARENESS AND GENDER SENSITIZATION

Sessions on Self Awareness and Gender Sensitization were given to the students on 12th August 2017. They were inter-active sessions eliciting the students' involvement through role play, drawing, quiz, etc. Later the students expressed their appreciation and even asked for some more sessions on like topics and by the same resource person.

CELEBRATIONS

RAKSHA BHANDAN

Students were divided into 4 groups for the RANGOLI COMPETITION. They had to use only leaves and flowers. It was indeed very colorful and the judges went around judging the best. The students then formed a huge circle and each one tied a Rakhi to her/his neighbour, thus forging a bond between them. One student gave a speech bringing out the significance of Raksha Bhandan, everyone took part in the dancing that followed. Snacks were served to all.

ADIVASI DAY PROGRAM

To celebrate Adivasi Day (World Indigenous Day) all the students took part in the cultural program of songs, dances, speeches. Each student tried to do her/his best and proudly brought out aspects of their culture and heritage. They also performed a dance and song in English proving their ability to adapt and learn. An appetizing meal was then served to all.

INDEPENDENCE DAY PROGRAM

All the students came to the college in the early morning for the Hoisting of the National Flag. The flag was hoisted by the longest serving teacher Ms. Sharmila, and the National Anthem sung with full voice. Sharmila then said a few words on the occasion. The General Knowledge quiz competition was held in groups for the students. They participated very enthusiastically.

The cultural program that followed had well prepared dances, group songs and speeches. These were held in the hall and snacks and tea were served to all.

VISITOR

A student from St.Xavier's College, Mumbai came to the centre for three days from 17th to 19th Aug, 2017 for her project work on Warli Art.

The college conducted the different academic activities as per the schedule that was planned with the staff.

The students were given a break of three days from 25th to 27th August, 2017 in view of their festival entitled "Ganesh Chatutrthi".

"Education helps us to decorate our life with beautiful colours of knowledge, humanity and love."
